Scholarship Application

The Virgil Simpson Roadrunners Scholarship policy is to provide financial assistance to those with economic need or financial hardship. Decisions will be based solely on income and will not consider race, gender, religion, or ethnicity in the determination of assistance. Submission of application is not a guarantee form of approval. All applicants must pay a minimum payment of $85 per athlete at the time of registration. All information that is provided in response to the scholarship application remains confidential and will not be shared for any other purpose. The information you provide will determine your child(ren)'s eligibility to receive a scholarship. Information will be kept on file based on the record retention policy of the club before being destroyed.
